Let $n$ be a natural number such that the equation $a^n + b^n = c^2$, where $a, b$ and $c$ are prime numbers has at least one solution. Find the maximal possible value of $n$. 